

Christ Church Contact

Message from Head Teacher

Dear Parents/Carers,

On Monday, Gertie, James, Kiera, Jack, Hannah Heath were joined by children from other local schools to participate in an Able Writers' workshop at Christ Church School today. Robin Price, author of I am Spartapuss and many other children's books, led a fun and inspiring day of creative writing. Children wrote and read aloud their own historical and science fiction stories and we also enjoyed hearing Robin read an extract from his novel, The London Deep. Thank you to all the children for working enthusiastically and creating some super stories.

Gertie said:

"It was really fun because we were writing the whole day and Literacy is my favourite subject."

Greek Day—30th October 2017

On Monday 30th October, we will be holding our fourth annual cultural day. This time it is Greece that we will be focusing in on. Children will experience a range of activities throughout the day designed to stimulate their interest and extend their understanding of the similarities and differences between our cultures.

Children may wear the colours of the Greek flag, blue and white, to school in exchange for a £1 contribution. These contributions will pay for the Greek food that will be available for tasting on the day. Previous cultural days have been hugely enjoyable and the children love the wide variety of learning experiences on offer.

A celebration assembly will also be held for the children to share their learning with the rest of the school shortly after the day.

Harvest festival

Arrived in town
All the people

Harvest, Harvest you give Pumpkins, potatoes,
parsleys,
The autumn drops conkers crack, crack them to the end,
The juicy cucumber green vegetables, red strawberries nice in the sun,
You give some fruit away with a cheer to the unfortunate people.
